Oath of Common Law Juror Pool

I, _____:

Please Print Your Appellation

Do solemnly affirm before the Creator of everything seen and unseen - the life-giver and sustainer as my witness, I am a Moorish American, and I uphold the Five Divine Moorish Principles of love, truth, peace, freedom, and justice, and support the Moorish Zodiac Constitution, the Morocco Empire Treaty of Peace and Friendship, and the de jure organic Constitution for the united States of America; the Republic, and the laws made pursuant to said agreements, and in conformity therewith, as a Noble Moorish American Common Law Juror, I will attentively hear the facts and see the evidence to the best of my ability, and give my verdict according to the facts, evidence and application of de jure Law. Further, I will not disclose any evidence brought before the Common Law Grand Jury, nor anything which I, or any other common law jurors may say, nor the manner in which I, or any other common juror may have voted on any matter under penalty of perjury. I will keep the duties entrusted to me by the Common Law Court and the trust that I will accomplish by law and fact in the interest of justice for humanity.
